

BIG WAREHOUSE DEAL IS STAGED HERE THURSDAY

Barber and Sapito to Meet With the Warehousemen of Eastern District
Here Tomorrow to Commemorate Transfer of Houses.

The transfer of twenty-four loose leaf warehouses in the Eastern district of Kentucky and two or three in the state of Ohio from corporation and individual ownership to the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association will be the object of a conference to be held at the Bank of Maysville in this city beginning Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Ralph M. Barker, Director of Warehouses for the co-operative association; and Aaron Sapito, legal adviser for the association, will meet representatives of the various warehouses Thursday and go directly into the matter of the purchase or lease of the properties.

The twenty-four warehouses in this district of Kentucky are located as follows: Bracken 5, Nicholas 3, Montgomery 3, Fleming 3, Mason 7, Lewis 1, and Carter 2. Warehouses in Ohio are located at West Union, Ripley and Georgetown.

This deal, if a direct purchase is made by the growers' organization will involve several millions of dollars.

At Carrollton Tuesday twenty-two houses were taken over under the same plan which will be offered here tomorrow.

The contract signed by all the ware-housemen at Carrollton provides for the leasing of the houses to the association until February 15, when the subsidaries will be leased to the corporation at a guaranteed rental of 8 per cent, in order to allow time for negotiation of terms and examination of titles. On June 15 the warehousemen either may lease their property to the association on the same basis or sell under one of three plans.

The first plan involves the issuance of preferred stock of the corporation guaranteed 8 per cent, and redeemable in equal amounts each year for five years, and of income bonds redeemable in six equal amounts. Negotiations have been begun for the sale of all the stocks and bonds if the warehousemen do not wish to take them in payment. The response Tuesday indicated that about one-sixth of the warehousemen will elect this method.

The second method involves the is-surance of twelve promissory notes bearing 6 per cent interest from maturity, and payable at intervals of two months for two years. It is estimated that about one-sixth of the warehousemen will choose this method.

The third method, which calculations from the meeting Tuesday indicated as the most popular, involves the payment of one-fourth cash for the fair market value of the houses on June 15, and the payment of the remaining in variable proportions of the stocks and bonds of the warehouse corporation.

The association agrees in the contract to pay all the insurance premiums and taxes after February 15.

BROWN COUNTY WOMAN DRINKS ACID AND JUMPS IN POND

Mrs. Emanuel Cowdrey, aged 59, After Drinking Carbolic Acid Is Found In Shallow Pond on Farm.

Georgetown, Ohio, Dec. 21. — The death of Mrs. Emanuel Cowdrey, aged 59 years, of Pike township, Brown county, was surrounded by most unfortunate and lamentable circumstances. The Cowdrey homestead is located near Shiloh church and has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cow-drey for forty years. Mrs. Cowdrey had been in failing health for some time, but was able to continue her household duties. A few days ago, after preparing breakfast and putting the house in order she left the house.
Her husband had preceded her in some work at the barn, and when he returned to the house found his wife missing. He thought nothing of the matter, however, concluding that she was looking after the poultry or other duties, but after a few minutes' time, finding her still missing, he instituted a search about the house, as well as at the poultry house and barn, and upon his return to the house he discovered an empty carbolic acid bottle and cup on the kitchen table. He telephoned the neighbors and a search of the farm was instituted. The body of the unfortunate woman was found lying face downward in a pond with scarcely enough water to cover her face. Bringing the body to the bank, it was found that she had been dead but a few minutes.

The Cowdreys had recently purchased property in Georgetown to make their home here. It is thought that she was on the verge of a nervous breakdown, and together with the worry because of leaving the old home farm, as well as the falling health of her husband, led her to use the means which caused her death.

DECKHAND FALLS FROM STEAMER DONALD; DROWNS

Young Man Who Gave His Name As Albert Bales, Loses Balance and Falls From Tow Boat at Ripley.

The Ripley Bee says:
A young man who gave his name as Albert Bales, while working on the Donald towboat wheeling coal to the boller room lost his balance and fell into the river and was drowned. A deckhand seeing him fall went to the engine room to have the boat stopped, but by the time it was stopped he was out of sight and was probably hit by the wheel. Nothing more was seen of him. The only mark on his clothing found on the boat was the name Becker, 1915, on his coat. He is said to have been partly raised by a family named Shamblin across the river. He had told some of the men on the Donald that his people lived at Shelby-ville, Indiana, but nothing is known of him here. He is also said to have told some one that he had a wife and child at some town between here and Pittsburg, some where near Clarington, Ohio.

KENTUCKY FEUD MAY HAVE BEEN TRANSFERRED TO WEST

Peculiar Murder of Kentucky Woman
At Los Angeles, California, Caused Careful Investigation By Police.

A Los Angeles, California, dispatch says:
"Has a Kentucky feud been transferred to Pomona, Los Angeles county, Mrs. Katherine Swain, 28 years old, formerly of Lexington, Ky., was found shortly after midnight Tuesday drugged, bound and burned to death in her home. The author of the crime thus far has not been identified. The writer of an anonymous letter which Mrs.
Swain received last Saturday said:
"I failed to get you last night but will get you next time." Last night 't is conceded refers to a first arson attempt against Mrs. Swain's home. This failed because of the timely discovery of the flames.

Coroner Nance today ordered a handwriting expert to study the letter which was written in a feminine hand.
Following last Friday's arson attempt the police have ascertained that Mrs.
Swain told her neighbors that she feared for her life and feared for her daughter, Jessie, 7 years old. Facts learned by the police throw a substantiating light upon the feud spirit.
They have learned that the family was twice in business in Lexington and that they gave up both times when they no longer could stand threats directed against Mrs. Swain.

CITY MISSION SENDS GIRL TO HOME.

The City Mission sent Julia Williams, 11 years old on the C. & O. 1:20 train Wednesday to the Florence Critchton home, Washington, D. C., where she will be educated and cared for until she is of age. The City Mission furnished her a complete outfit and paid her expenses to the home. This is a practical demonstration of the worth of this institution, locally. The humane and hard-working women interested in this work deserve all praise and those who support this worthy charity are assured that all they give or donate, save the small stipend paid the matron, go to the unfortunate and the afflicted in his name who gave us the only example of genuine love—the Prince of Peace—whose natal day we reverently celebrate Sunday next.

COUNTY GETS DEED TO FIRST NEW CON- SOLIDATED SCHOOL

County Board of Education Makes the Last Payment on Mayslick High School Building and It Is Transferred to County.

Mason county this week became the actual owner of the beautiful Mayslick Consolidated School property, the county Board of Education having made the last payment on the property which cost the county a total of $32,000, and which has been paid for in rent.

The building was erected in 1909 by the Mayslick Improvement Company with the understanding that it was to be rented by the county to the county and that when the county should have paid the cost price of the building back to the finance company, it was to be deeded to the county.

The county Board of Education has been paying about $3,000 each year on the property. This has paid the interest and has now paid all of the principle.

This is one of the most attractive school buildings in the state of Kentucky. Complete in every detail with up-to-date equipment for work in a first class high school. There are seven teachers, four of whom are high school teachers and the remaining seven teach the grades. Every high school teacher in the school is a college graduate.

This is the first of a series of six consolidated schools located throughout the county and purchased by the County Board of Education on the same plan. A seventh is being planned for the Orangeburg neighborhood and under this plan the county will be equipped with splendid school buildings within a very few years.

argued before the court Wednesday afternoon.

BAND MEMBERS RECEIVE CHECKS FOR $88 EACH

Members of Cardinal Band Receive Good Sized Sum for Christmas Atter Delightful Trips and Training.

Mr. N. S. Calhoun, treasurer of the managing committee of the Maysville Boys' Bands, today distributed to the members of the Cardinal Band checks for eighty-eight dollars each representing their share of the fund made by the band during the past season after expenses had been subtracted.

This is a fine Christmas gift for the youngsters and when their musical education and the delightful trips they had had during the year is considered, they have been well paid for the year's work. On all of their trips, they were royally entertained by the committee at the best hotels. They traveled in style, keeping up their reputation of "A Million Dollar Band" and they have made a great reputation over the country.

Members of the Horseshoe Band will receive their checks this week.
Just what these checks will be is not known as yet but they will be very small as this band played but one pay-engagement during the whole of the season. They will be playing many more pay engagements during the coming season.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 21. — The burley tobacco sale at the Jewell ware-poorer in quality. A total of 125,129

INJUNCTION IS GRANTED IN MILL STRIKE TROUBLE

Judge Cochran Grants Preliminary Injunction Against Interfering With Transportation of Steel Company's Product.

In Chambers here Wednesday afternoon Federal Judge A. M. J. Cochran granted a preliminary injunction to the Andrews Steel Company, of Newport, to prevent interference with the transportation of the company's products and material by automobile from the company's plant in Newport to Cincinnati. Attorney Frank B. Benton represented the plaintiff and At-

FIRING CONTINUES AT ANDREWS' MILL.

Newport, Ky., Dec. 21. — W. N. Andrews, secretary of the Newport Rolling mills, declared Wednesday that an auto loaded with strike sympathizers drove near the mill and fired upon it Tuesday night. Thereafter through the night he alleged, there was sporadic firing upon the mill from the outside by men whom, he claims, singled out the mill's searchlight operator for attack. Andrews said that none of the bullets took effect.

Strike sympathizers denied that any shots were fired at the mill and denounced the story of the auto and armed crew as false. They declared that the night passed quietly, "although it was a sleepless one for persons in the neighborhood whose homes were in the path of bullets Monday night." They said the people feared another fusillade and that some of them not only moved their beds away from windows, but set up a bulwark of furniture between them and the mills.

Richard Staton, former Fox director, has formed his own company.

OUR POLICE:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Maysville County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

BIDDING HIGH ON A DECLINING MARKET.

Action of City Council at its last session in adopting a salary schedule increasing the city's overhead expenses is not generally looked upon by the tax paying public as the best of business judgment.

It is a strange fact that level headed business men, elected to public office, do not use the same good business judgment in public affairs they display in the management of their own affairs. It is certain that the members of council who are now employing men or women in their own business are not increasing salaries. On the other hand, in many local industries salaries are being reduced rather than increased.

The Public Ledger has never favored a reduction in the present salaries of our city officials, but has opposed increases such as Council has made and we yet believe the Councilmen will, before they have wrestled with the city's fiscal affairs for long, realize they have erred.

Had the present City Council continued its original course in reducing the tax payers' burden, they would have served the public better and would have received from the public due praise. Their abolishing of useless offices, however, has not benefitted the tax payer for they have increased the salaries of other officials to a much larger sum than that which they had saved. It might have been better to have left matters as they were, for, then the money would have been distributed among more people.

Councilmen must not forget that they are the servants of the people and that they are spending the people's money. While an increased tax levy on the valuation which may be fixed upon the property some of the councilmen purchased in order to qualify as free holders may not be a burdensome sum, there are property owners to whom tax paying is serious.

Go slow gentlemen and don't bid high on declining markets.

MAYSVILLE'S MERRY CHRISTMAS.

It's not to boast of our good deeds, but that the deeds of good men may not go unrecorded.

Maysville is the best spot on earth.

There are more big hearted, open pursed people in Maysville than in any other community of the same size that we know anything about. More different agencies are at work in Maysville this week to see that Christmas is real to every man, woman and child living between Dieterich's Lane and Glycine Hollow than in the same area elsewhere.

Our business men, headed by Colonel "Billy" Stockton, whose heart is only limited by the size of his ability to do or to induce others to do, will see that not a child within reaching distance will spend Christmas without candy, fruits and toys. The order of Elks, known the world over as "The Best People On Earth," will furnish Christmas dinner to three hundred poor families and that great all-year-round friend of the poor, The City Mission, will have practical gifts, donated by the school children, for every poor man, woman and child in Maysville and its suburbs.

The knowledge that hundreds of hearts will be glad on Christmas that might have been sad, but for these efforts, should make a happier Christmas for those who have had a part in any of them.

AGAIN THE WATER QUESTION.

Maysville is not to have a filtration plant by the means employed in our behalf by the State Board of Health and yet the water question remains unsolved.

Upon suggestion of Councilman Dodson, a special committee has been named consisting of three councilmen and four prominent business men to talk over matters with the water company in an effort to reach some solution of the water problem. We like this get-together idea. It's much better than the court room way and Maysville's experience has been that it is much more successful in this water issue. It was when Mayor Russell named a citizen's committee and that committee "talked it over" with the company that we got new electrically driven pumps. Let's hope that this new committee will be as successful as the old committee and get a filtration plant.

Present conditions are not so serious as they were months ago but the system of purification now used, or something else in the water, is causing the plumbing in the city to go to the bad and plumbers' bills are entirely too frequent.

We hope this committee and the water company will save us from the plumbers and give us good water.

OUR NEW EAGLES' HOME

The youngest fraternal organization of any size in Maysville, the Fraternal Order of Eagles, has purchased a home and announces that improvements of such a material character will be put upon and into the building that it will be one of the most attractive lodge homes in Kentucky.

This new organization, its officials and membership, is to be congratulated upon this demonstration of thrift and desire to be properly housed and contribute to the substantial improvement of the city.

Although young in years, the local lodge of Eagles has a glorious record of achievement. They have done much for others and now propose to do for themselves.

We, of Maysville, who are not members of the feathered flock, congratulate them, and, with them, shall be very proud of the new Eagles' Home.

The war debt was reduced $465,000,000 last month, which shows that the Republicans are making good their promise to cut down the cost of government.—Milwaukee Journal.

ANNUAL REPORT OF U. S. PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE.

Service Has Been Active For 123 Years as a Federal Agency for Health Improvement.

The annual report of the Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1921, has been issued. This report covers the one hundred and twenty-third year of the existence of the service.

The report states that: "As organized, the Public Health Service constitutes by far the largest Federal agency for the protection of the public health, and the most important Federal functions are (1) the prevention of the introduction of diseases into the United States, or from one state to another state; (2) the investigation of diseases of man and stream pollution; (3) supervision and control of biologic products; (4) public-health education; and (5) the operation of hospital service for its beneficiaries, including disabled ex-service men and women."

"Concerning the work of the Public Health Service for the veterans of the World War, . . . that service has met this emergency in as efficient manner as it was humanly possible under the circumstances to do. Since the beginning of this work the service has examined over 1,000,000 applicants for compensation, furnished hospital care to 200,000 patients, dis-

IS THIS YOUR EXPERIENCE?

Many Maysville People Are Afflicted With Annoying Kidney Ills.

Are you bothered with too frequent action of the kidneys? Are the secretions highly colored—do they contain sediment—burn and scald in voiding? These are all signs of kidney sickness and should not be neglected. Maysville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches and your kidneys are weak you will find no better recommended remedy.

George H. King, proprietor grocery store, 615 East Second street, Maysville says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years and have been greatly benefitted by them. At times my kidneys get out of order and the secretions pass irregularly. I suffered with a severe aching through the small of my back. Whenever I have one of these attacks I use a box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills and they never fail to cure the complaint in a short time." (Statement given November 15, 1916.)

On November 22, 1920, Mr. King added: "The cure I spoke about in my former statement has proven absolutely permanent. I haven't had the slightest sign of kidney trouble since giving my testimony in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills in 1916." Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. King had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York.—One of our oldest jokes is that the safest place to pull a swindle is either in the world-famed Wall Street or sophisticated Times Square. Both these places are yielding a rich harvest at this season. A furtive yetch in the innocent garb of a truck driver will lure you into a doorway and offer you a rare bargain in an antebellum stolen piece of fur, or ever offers "smuggled" diamonds, or bolts of "Scotch tweed." Your moral sense wavers a bit, but it does seem a shame that someone else, less appreciative, should get hold of these things, and you want to buy. Sometimes you do. Simpkins of Wall Street, business men and working girls have been handsomely fleeced by a team of dangerously accomplished salesmen whose first names are Abe and Moe, but who have posed successfully as Scottish sea-faring men on a tramp steamer from Glasgow. They show you the papers, the bills of lading and what not, but the nearest plect of Scotland they have ever seen is Coney Island. Their wares are spurious and imitations, and aided by the cupid of their victims who imagine they are getting a dishonest bargain, they go far in giving truth to the old joke.

Ellis Parker Butler knew, whereof he spoke. One Irwin Moscovitz also knows. Irwin never owned a pig, and didn't the particular one of which he became possessed, but while motoring down from Bridgeport one night not long ago he was stopped near the state line by a negro perambulator in his very person. The thing nearest to the negro's desires was the sale of a pig, and Mr. Moscovitz, fearing that his intentions might otherwise take the form of relieving him of his money without the exchange of the pig, took the pig. Mrs. Moscovitz was not used to pig either, and when he arrived in his Bronx flat the simplest arrangement was to put the pig in the bath tub and let morning determine its future use. It was probably the first pig in any form which had ever graced the Moscovitz household. In the morning the foundations of Jerusalem may well have quaked for from the bathroom came such a sound as was more than faintly reminiscent of the well-known pig-pen. And in the tub were more pigs — if pigs have pups — than were ever known to come from a single pig. There were nine in all. Mr. and Mrs. Moscovitz took the count. "Pigs is pigs," in any New York establishment!

Street car conductors become philanthropists, even though their path in life is more or less laid out for them. They come to know "types." Take the one on Grand street—the one who operates about theater time. Whenever certain types board his car he smiles pleasantly in an authoritative fashion. "Getting off at the Neighborhood Players?" For the unlightened I will say that the Neighborhood Players run the Neighborhood Playhouse on Grand street, probably the most remote theater in New York but whose productions are always worth the trip. His judgment is invariably, and the persons addressed always look surprised and pleased to admit that he has guessed their destination. It would be interesting to know how he can determine these people. Those attending this theater go from the very well dressed, smart people to the serious but shabby students of the theater. Nevertheless he guesses right so much of the time that one must attribute him with an unusual knack.

Speaking of social conduct, public and private, indications are that this will be a rude winter in New York. Every now and then we get a swing toward a definite method in our conversational conduct. We are not consistently exertive in sugaring our passing conversations with people as in England, for instance. In England you always thank the clerk for your change, just as if it were a rare favor on his part to return your just due, and the clerk will even thank you for inquiring for something which he does not have. It becomes a habit and as such is commendable, but this season in New York it is verily dissimilar. The conductors make their "Step lively!" a little more staccato, the subway guards are positively peremptory in their directions and clerks in the stores are more firm than polite. And grande dame about the portals of the exclusive hotels seems to take personal pride in giving tart direction to her chauffeur and he in turn, becomes coldly acquiescent. The ebony clerk which greeted us last summer, but scowls and seems a bit hasty in putting you right in traffic direction. Perhaps it is the cold, crisp air and the business intensity which hits us in mid-year, and perhaps with the coming of spring and the rise of blossoms in the ground we will go back to the punctilious politeness with which he like to pride ourselves.

Admiral Tsai Ting Kan has given the women some sound advice in a recent speech. He declares the practice of allowing the husband to become a master in the art of frying eggs, sewing on buttons and doing other household duties, not because it makes him work but because it makes the husband independent of the wife and that is fatal for the successful handling of the domestic problem. According to the Admiral, the emancipation of women may be best accomplished by keeping the husband dependent. These orientals have a great many wise things to tell us and this may be important after all.

WOMEN PIONEERS OF KENTUCKY GAVE STATE GOOD LAWS

Many Laws Unfair to Women of the State Were Removed and Safer Laws Passed Through Women's Early Efforts.

It was gratifying to those who heard Hon. Stanley F. Reed speak at the court house Monday, December 12, to learn that the laws of Kentucky concerning women are so well abreast of the best modern thought. But it was both interesting and just that Miss Hilda Threlkeld should have reminded this generation of women how much of this righteous legislation is due to the unrequited toil of the women who composed the Kentucky Equal Rights Association. While these advanced laws were passed after the Kentucky Equal Rights Association organized in 1888, had spent time, effort and money in educating public opinion.

They found one of the statute books a law that permitted a husband to collect his wife's wages. From the General Assembly of 1890 they secured a law which made a wife's wages payable only to herself.

At that too, a wife did not have to sign a chattel mortgage, and if her husband were in sufficient need of money to buy drink, he could mortgage the sewing machine with which she earned the family living or their cooking stove or their bed to satisfy his thirst.

From the Constitutional convention in 1890 they secured a provision in the Constitution empowering the General Assembly to regulate school elections and to extend school suffrage to women by a section providing for such elections separately.

They found Kentucky the only state that did not permit a married woman to make a will. From the General Assembly of 1892-93 they secured a law giving a married woman the right to make a will and control her real estate.

They found that marriage gave to the husband all the wife's personal property which could be reduced to possession, and the use of all her real estate owned at the time or acquired by her after marriage, with power to rent the same for not more than three years at a time and receive the rent.

They found that the common law of courtesy and dower prevailed whereby on the death of the wife, the husband inherited absolutely all personal property not theretofore reduced to possession, and when there were children, a life interest in all her real estate; while the wife when there were children, inherited one-third of her husband's personal property and a life interest in one-third of his real estate possessed during marriage.

From the General Assembly of 1894 they secured the enactment of the present righteous husband and wife law, the main features of which were given by the speaker on Monday.

When the agitation for this change in the law was being made, the type of woman who now says: "The laws of Kentucky are good enough for me" (through she would not perhaps wish to be examined on what the laws are) then said quite indignantly: "If I can trust him with myself, I can trust him with my property." And this at a time when a Mason county girl of gentle bearing, married to a man in a differ-part of the state, had her bridal presents sold to pay her husband's debts.

Law or no law a right-minded man does right. "Love is the fulfilling of the law." But there has ever been a percent of the population that is not right-minded. A just law works no injustice or hardship on a good man, while it restrains a selfish, unjust tyrant.

Laws are made to restrain evil-doers not just persons. It is because no vast majority of men took benevolent care of their wives that the unfortunate women with base husbands suffered without protection of the law.

The Kentucky Equal Rights Association did then what women's organizations are still doing, it spoke for those who could not speak for themselves.

Statutes similar to that of Kentucky in 1894 were passed years before by some of the states; one in Virginia in 1877, and then England followed the states by an act of Parliament in 1882. Our own act was rather late, "the chivalrous Kentuckian desiring to protect his wife by his own good right arm and fair mind rather than the uncertain writ," until the K.

E. R. A. reminded him that not even all Kentuckians were chivalrous. The time was ripe. One session defeated the bill; but at the next it was re-drafted and presented by Representative Rosel Weisinger of Louisville. It was accepted and became a law March 15, 1894.

Note the fact however that property held prior to 1894 by persons married prior to that date is held under the old law and not subject to the provisions of the Act of 1894. Thus many a woman who had hoped under the new law to have a little freer use of her own property was disappointed.

The husband, who is a safe business man, no doubt in the majority of instances still manages his wife's property, with perfect harmony and satisfaction to both. While the woman who has the misfortune to have a husband who can not manage safely his own inheritance or earnings, may use precaution to see that he does not reduce them both to utter want by bad management of her property also.

These are but some of the laws for good right arm and fair mind rather than the uncertain writ," until the K. women have to thank the generation that is now passing off the stage of active service.

We owe them much; but most of all to take up the work where they left off and continue to try to make this world a happier place in which to live by juster laws better administered.

BLAME THE CAPTAIN.

Five sailors are being held under heavy bail to appear against a man, believed to be the leader of the rum-sneugglers in New York and New Jersey. They brought the schooner, the J. B. Young, into New York harbor after running up and down the coast outside Sandy Hook, for several days. They claimed the captain left the vessel and that they knew nothing of navigation. There were 300 cases of liquor on board the J. B. Young when it reached port.

STARTLING ALIBI.

A confectioner of Utica, N. Y., started the judge, when arraigned in court for having liquor in his possession illegally, by declaring that the alcohol was not for his own consumption but to allay the thirst of a pet three-legged calf. This calf is one of the attractions at the county fairs in the neighborhood of Utica.

WORK TO BE RESUMED ON JEFFERSON DAVIS SHAFT.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Dec. 21. — Preparations are being made at the Jefferson Davis Memorial Park to resume work on the obelisk, which will be the highest memorial shaft in the world with the exception of the Washington Monument.

Work will begin as soon as the weather permits. C. R. Gregg, who built the obelisk to the present height of 176 feet, when work was suspended during the war, was the successful bidder for completion of the shaft.

Memorial certificates are being sold by the United Daughters of the Confederacy throughout the South to provide funds.

PEPTO-MANGAN KEEPS BLOOD PURE

Growing Children Need Plenty of Red Cells in Blood.

When the young body is growing, children frequently experience weakness. Girls and boys sometimes play too hard and over-tax their systems. They become pale, weak, and sickly. They lose their appetites, become languid, and are not able to make progress in school work. "Growing too fast" is often true. It is most important to keep the blood of growing girls and boys in a healthy state.

Pepto-Mangan keeps the blood pure. The red cells in the blood are increased. They carry life-giving oxygen to all parts of the body, and wholesome youthfulness blooms again in clear complexions, bright eyes and buoyant spirits. Sold both in liquid and tablet form by druggists everywhere. The name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" is on the package.—Advertisement.

CANDLE GLOW TO MARK WHITE HOUSE WINDOWS.

Washington, Dec. 20. — Windows of the White House on Christmas Eve will all be adorned with lighted candles. Mrs. Warren G. Harding has decided to renew an old New England custom which calls for the display, and arrangements were completed this week for the candles and the fixtures necessary.

Mr. Harding, it was said, once succeeded in having the custom adopted in his home city of Marion, Ohio, through an editorial campaign in his newspaper.

UNABLE TO BUY BRIDE PRESENT, YOUTH SUICIDES

Falmouth Youth Takes His Own Life With Shot Gun After Being Unable to Find Work.

Unable to buy Christmas present for his bride, Mrs. Hilda Huffman, to whom he was married six weeks ago, Arthur Huffman, 21 years old, Falmouth, Ky., shot and killed himself at the home of his grandfather, John Smith, near Falmouth, early Tuesday morning.

Filled with the confidence and hope of youth, Huffman married Miss Hilda Lightfoot, of Falmouth, during the second week in November. At that time he was employed by a hiveryman in Falmouth, and his prospects for happiness were bright. Several weeks ago he lost his position, and since then he has been unable to obtain employment.

Relatives said yesterday he had appeared to become more despondent each day as the Christmas season neared.

"This will be our first Christmas together, and I have no money" with which to buy my wife a present to show my love for her," he was heard to remark.

Early Tuesday morning Huffman went to the home of his grandfather. After holding a conversation with members of the family he climbed to the second floor. In a few minutes the report of a gun was heard and the grandfather hurried upstairs. He found Huffman lying on the floor, dead. A double-barreled shot gun was lying beside him.

CHILLO OWNERS APPLY FOR LIMITED LIABILITY

Owners of Sankin Ohio River Steamer Ask Injunction Against Damage Suits and Adjusting Commissioners.

Threats of damage suits by persons losing freight in the sinking of the steamer Chilo on November 17 caused the Cincinnati, Pomeroy and Charleston Packet Company, owner of the boat, Tuesday to apply to the United States Court for the benefit of the limited liability law. By that act damages that can be recovered are limited not to exceed the amount realized from salvaging the wreck. The company says that for the Chilo that amount will be not more than $500, and for the freight saved it will be not more than $250.

The company says the sinking of the Chilo was due solely to the unusual eddy and strong current prevailing at Dam 35 at the time the boat attempted to land there to deliver government freight, and that the accident was without fault or neglect of the officers and crew of the Chilo. The court is asked to issue its injunction against the bringing of damage suits and to name a commissioner to adjust claims growing out of the wreck.

Considerable freight consigned to Maysville merchants was aboard the steamer when she sank near the New Richmond dam.

WEED PRICES HOLD UP WELL ON INDEPENDENT MARKET.

Richmond, Ky., Dec. 21.—Prices on the Richmond tobacco market continue to hold up to figures that are making every tobacco man happy, both in and out of the pool. Although the latter are not receiving their money yet, still they are mighty well satisfied at the prospects for making nice profits on their weed when they do sell at the figures that are being paid now.

Up to Saturday the Home house sold 453,000 pounds of tobacco for a total average of $30.45 per hundred pounds. On Monday sales amounted to 175,425 pounds for an average of $31.25.

ARRESTS MADE IN THEFT OF BICYCLES.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort, Wednesday afternoon, recovered the two bicycles stolen from in front of the Brown pool room in East Second street several nights ago. The bicycles belonged to Harlan Vaughn and Alvin Harrington and were taken while the young men were in the pool room. Sam Routt and Walter Bush were arrested by Chief Ort in connection with the theft.

Tobacco Burns in Barn Near Lexington.

Fire of undetermined origin shortly before 7 o'clock last night destroyed a large tobacco barn containing between fifteen and eighteen acres of tobacco on the farm of Dr. S. H. Halley, two miles from Lexington on the Leestown pike. The loss was conservatively estimated at $7,500.
